M. de Sechelles, Intendant of the King's Army in Flanders, is to leave it on the 20th, and his Equipage set out on Friday last. Hague, Sept. 13, N. S. The Prince of Orange's Return from Amsterdam has been put off, on Account of some new Demands of the Burghers of that Town. They now require that all the Echevins, and Members of the Oud Raad, or Old Council, should be dismissed; that none of the Officers of the Militia should ever possess any Employment in the Regency; and that a new Council of War should be formed absolutely independent of the Magistrates. The Deputies of the Burghers have had several Audiences of the Prince on these Points, and his Highness issued on Tuesday Morning a Proclamation entirely agreeable to their Request. We hear likewise from Amsterdam, that the Prince of Orange intends to erect there a Board of Trade, composed of the most eminent Merchants of that City. The States of Zealand have lately taken a Resolution to continue the Farmers of the publick Revenue, as they have not yet found out any Means of replacing the Funds raised thereby. Letters from Languedoc mention, that every Thing was preparing in that Province for the Passage of the Spanish Troops, as well as for the Reception of those of France, which are to be quartered there. Twelve Thousand of the latter are expected to arrive there soon from the Army in Provence. We hear that the Count de la Salle, who some Time since made his Escape from Dantzick, was arrived at Paris.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of his Majesty's Ship Kingston, that their Shares of Bounty Money for burning the Spanish Gallies in the Mediterranean, will be paid at the King's Arms on Tower Hill, on Wednesday the 28th Instant; and the Shares not then demanded will be paid at Mr. Henshaw's Office on the first Tuesday of every Month for three Years after.
